Dear Sir:

I have your letter of the 15th ultimo replying to my letter of the 13th with reference to an old English coin found sometime ago in making an excavation near Suffolk.

I am enclosing the coin herewith, by registered mail, and shall be very glad to have you advise me with reference to it.

I am also enclosing 12¢ in stamps covering postal charges for its return by registered mail.

Very truly,

Dear Sir:

The coin, which we are returning herewith by registered mail, is a half-penny of Charles II of England, struck for us in Ireland in 1681. The piece has no numismatic value as its condition is too poor. In fine condition, at the most it would not be worth more than 25 cents.

Very truly yours,

Curator
